"STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION"

DEFENDANT: DANIEL FRANK AMERSON
CASE NUMBER: 1:07-CR-00082-002

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. The defendant must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. The defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer.
3. The defendant must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. The defendant must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
5. The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment.
6. The defendant must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
8. The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any persons convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
9. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
10. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.
11. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization/employer), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
12. The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities.
13. The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

6) The defendant shall cooperate with the United States Probation Office Computer and Internet Monitoring program. Cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, identifying computer systems, Internet capable devices, and/or similar electronic devices the offender has access to, and allowing the installation of monitoring software/hardware on said devices, at the offender's expense. The offender shall inform all parties that access a monitored computer, or similar electronic device, that the device is subject to search and monitoring. The offender may be limited to possessing only one personal Internet capable device, to facilitate the ability to effectively monitor his Internet related activities. The defendant shall also permit random examinations of said computer systems, Internet capable devices, and similar electronic devices, and related computer peripherals, such as CD's, under his control.

7) The defendant shall be monitored by the form of location monitoring indicated below for the 12-month supervised release term, and shall abide by all technology requirements. The defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of participation in the location monitoring program as directed by the court and the supervising officer. The location monitoring technology will be left to the discretion of the officer. This form of location monitoring technology shall be used to monitor the following restriction on the movement of participant in the community as well as other court-imposed conditions of release (the court must impose one of these components):

You are restricted to your residence at all times, except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities as preapproved by the officer (home detention).
